THE YORKSHIRE
COUNTY CRICKET CLUB

2010 looks to be a very exciting year for the Yorkshire County Cricket Club. Headingley Carnegie Cricket Ground will be transformed by the opening of the Carnegie Pavilion in which the very highest quality hospitality and events facilities will be made available, alongside the current private boxes and fantastic shared viewing facilities.

The Club will also host two thrilling international cricket matches presenting a unique opportunity to see two of the world's greatest cricketing powers, Pakistan and Australia, challenge each other in a Test Match before England take on Pakistan in a One Day International later this year.

So, whether you are looking to enjoy a day out at the cricket with friends or entertain clients, The National Sporting Club can offer you a range of hospitality to suit your requirements.
