Cricket at Trent Bridge 2010

Twenty20 and NatWest Series ODI

Pakistan and Bangladesh provide England's opposition at Trent Bridge, the world's third oldest Test Match venue. Nothing quite compares to watching the drama and intrigue of a live cricket match unfolding right before your eyes. Imagine that game set against the perfect backdrop provided by Trent Bridge while you bask in luxury.

The National Sporting Club is pleased offer superb hospitality options in the Derek Randall Suite and Sobers Hall. These are shared facilities and the inclusive VIP packages will give you the best seats in the house and also excellent food and fine wines.

The Derek Randall Suite includes a reserved seat in the Hound Road Stand directly in front of the Suite with fine views of the play. The restaurant offers tables of 10 or 12 with smaller numbers being accommodated on shared tables.

Sobers Hall offers superb views from your reserved seat in the Radcliffe Road Middle Tier with a relaxed atmosphere for dining. This non-viewing dining facility offers tables of 10 or 12 with smaller numbers being accommodated on shared tables.
